NATURE NOTES

To our members:

We have been fortunate in persuading EDWARD AVIS, the nationally known "Bird Mimic" to come to Webster Groves during his stay in St. Louis, and give his Bird Song Recital on the date mentioned above.

His lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides, and - by whistling and the use of the violin - he will reproduce the songs and bird calls of many of the wild birds.

Because of this unusual opportunity, our Botany Group meeting set for the same evening, has been postponed until next month.

It would be fine to see the entire membership of the Society take advantage of this rare chance to become more intimately acquainted with our friends - the birds.

There will be no charge for admission. Don't fail to come, and to extend an invitation to some of your friends.

Anne A. Jones, Secretary
WEBSTER GROVES NATURE-STUDY SOCIETY
